"I get up every morning determined to both change the world and have one hell of a good time. Sometimes this makes planning my day difficult."

Thank you, E.B. White for putting it so nicely! Das kennen wir alle - die sich widerstrebenden Ziele, die es miteinander in Einklang zu bringen gibt, oder auch deren Unvereinbarkeit, die wir lernen müssen zu akzeptieren. Immer wenn ich in meinem Geburtsort Teneriffa am Strand stehe und den Sonnenaufgang am Meer erlebe, nehme ich den Horizont neu wahr, richte mich neu aus in eine Energie, die mir gut tut und die ich weitergeben kann. Vielleicht tragen unsere Cashmere Begleiter, 100% handmade in Nepal, auch ein bisschen dazu bei, dass Sie sich wohl und in sich zuhause fühlen und so positive attitude weitergeben?

Darüber würde ich mich freuen.

In der Zuversicht auf ein gutes Morgen,

"I get up every morning determined to both change the world and have one hell of a good time. Sometimes this makes planning my day difficult."

Thank you, E.B. White for putting it so nicely! Don't we all know about those conflicting goals we are always trying to reconcile, sometimes grappling with their incompatibility, which we just have to learn to accept. Every time I experience the sunrise on the beach in my birthplace Tenerife, and a new horizon reveals itself to me, I realign myself with an energy that feels good and that I can pass on. Perhaps our cashmere companions, 100% handmade in Nepal, can contribute to making you feel comfortable and at home with yourself, a state in which you will want to pass on some positive attitude?

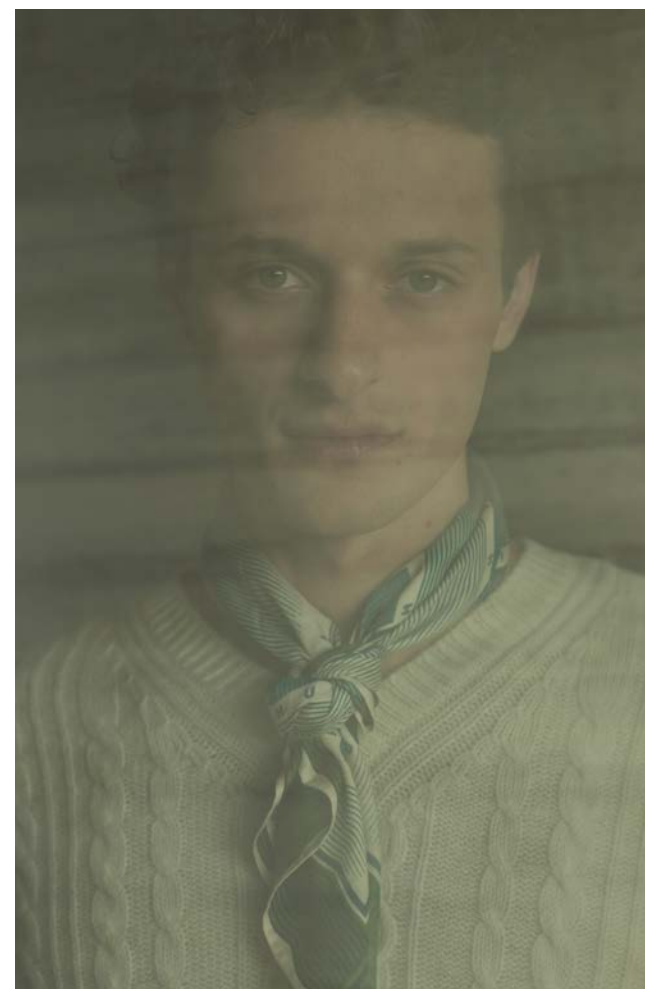

That would truly delight me.

Looking towards a good tomorrow with confidence,

Namasté and a toute à l'heure,

Christian & Michaela Goldmann

A vibrant, patterned scarf is captured mid-air, appearing to fly or dance against a clear blue sky with soft, wispy clouds. The scarf features a complex, abstract geometric pattern in white and black on a dark background, with a prominent red border. The fabric is caught in a dynamic pose, with folds and ripples that suggest movement. The overall composition is artistic and evocative, emphasizing the beauty of the textile and the vastness of the sky.
